

CHURCH CONFERENCE MARCH 12 5:30 PM FELLOWSHIP HALL

Our District Superintendent, Jean Tippet will conduct a Church Conference for the members of Lillian UMC to vote on our church disaffiliating from the United Methodist Church. Members must be present to vote. Please arrive early, because registration will close at 5:30 PM. Late arrivals will not be permitted to vote. When you arrive you will sign in and receive a sticker indicating you are a voting member. If you do not want to vote one way or the other, then you do not need to register and receive a ballot. All ballots passed out will be counted. If you register and take a ballot and return it blank or write abstain on the ballot, it will be counted as a vote to stay UMC. It will take sixty seven percent (66.7%) of the voting members present to vote to disaffiliate in order for the church to disaffiliate. If we vote to disaffiliate, the district superintendent will depart, and we will immediately convene a second Church Conference to make decisions on our next steps.

To better understand the current state of The United Methodist Church and why thousands of churches are disaffiliating, please enter the following link in your Internet browser, and watch this video (<https://youtube/VjydUH-lfDo>). If you have any questions and need more information, contact Pastor Daniel at 251-234-1122.
